II. BENEFICIARIES

When we meet to discuss your estate planning, I will review with you in detail the various ways property can be distributed upon your death. For now, however, please list the names of the person, groups of persons, or entities (including charitable organizations) that you would like to benefit from your estate upon your death.

Husband/Partner 1	Wife/Partner 2

Specific beneficiaries. List the persons or entities to which you wish to make gifts of cash or real property upon your death. (We will include a memo provision for personal property.)

Gift	Husband/Partner 1	Wife/Partner 2

Residuary beneficiaries. List the persons or entities to which you wish to leave the remainder of your estate after specific bequests are made.

III. FIDUCIARIES

In the course of your estate planning, you will be required to select fiduciaries, which are individuals or entities entrusted to act on your behalf in some capacity, such as to administer assets of your estate upon your death, to administer trust assets on behalf of beneficiaries, to make health decisions for you if you are unable to make those decisions yourself, or to take care of your minor children in the event that you are unable to do so. Below, I have asked you to supply names and addresses for the persons whom you have selected for such fiduciary positions. In addition, please list the appointed fiduciary's relationship to you. When choosing a fiduciary, please note that it is often appropriate for a surviving spouse to act in such capacity and that you can name more than one person to act as a fiduciary. If you are having trouble choosing fiduciaries, feel free to skip over this section. I will go over each fiduciary position in detail when we meet to discuss your estate planning.

Personal representative: Often called an "executor," a personal representative has broad powers to administer and distribute your property after your death. Please list their names and City/State.
